Gauge used for following pattern calculations: 4.25 sts/inch. Visit handsoccupied.com/knitalong for more details on gauge, the fall 2014 knit along, and the Remy Pullover we're knitting.

(Note: Rnd 1 of this pattern is the last row worked in the KAL sleeve attachment instructions, a.k.a. step 10 of "How to Attach Sleeves / Knit Along Day 4." You should have worked an LCx3 on each sleeve during the round in which you attached the sleeves to the sweater body. If you didn't and don't want to tear out your work, you can work an LCx3 on the sweater sleeves this round and the difference won't be hugely noticeable.)

Size XS - there should be 188 sts after attaching sleeves
